FOREWORD

As another college year draws to a close and education-crammed heads turn homeward again, "The Scenes and Sounds of Central" become memories never to be forgotten of our wonderful college days. The clang of bells at start and stop of classes. The shuffle of feet, hundreds of feet, mounting the stairs in the old "Ad" building. The swish of taffeta at the Military Ball. The bang of hammers as busy workmen build more and more dorms, classrooms, married students' apartments to house the growing student body. The blended voices of the Central Singers. The shouts of the CES children on their playfield. The shadows lengthening across the campus in the early evening. Trees, their mantles of green in the spring, brown in the fall, ermine in the winter. Lights streaming from dormitory windows as finals bring out the midnight oil. A "quick cup" in the Snack Bar. A "hello" from a friend. These are some of the "Scenes and Sounds of Central" that will live in our memories . . . forever.

DEDICATION

It is with pleasure that we dedicate this 1961 Hyakem to Dr. Wayne S. Hertz, a leader, nationally, in the field of music. Dr. Hertz has brought fame to Central since he joined the faculty in 1938. He organized the Central Singers shortly after his arrival and has led them to national fame. In the last 15 years he has directed more than 70 festivals, including one in Honolulu last year. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in Music Education from the University of Illinois, his Master of Music degree from Northwestern University and his Ed. D., in Music from New York University. He has held top positions in national, state and district musical groups and has been a leader in the Music Educators National Conference. Former students of Dr. Hertz' are following in his footsteps by winning names for themselves in music education. And not only to Central's music students but to the entire student body — from the youngest frosh to the oldest senior — is Dr. Hertz an inspiration — a teacher to be remembered long after commencement severs Sweecy's ties.

Dr. Hertz is also a family man. He has two daughters, one a college sophomore and the other married and teaching in Seattle.

Dr. Hertz has been active in church and community affairs, and is shown here with a member of his church.

Dr. Hertz has been a friend and an inspiration to the student's of Central.

Dr. Hertz has taken the Central Singers on several tours of performance, including one to Chicago.

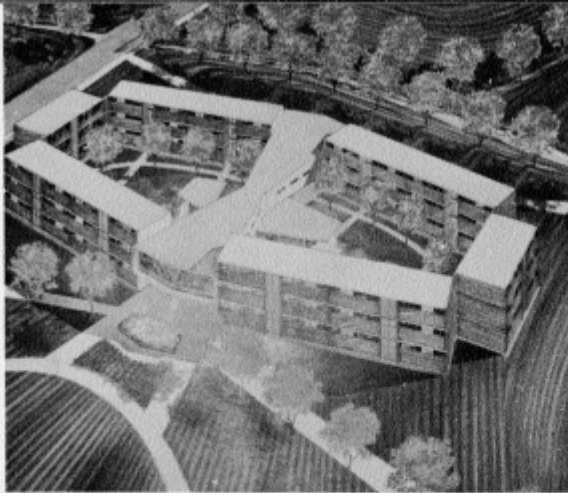

Dr. Hertz has won many honors and has held top elective positions in the field of music.

Dr. Hertz, director of Music at Central since 1938, enjoys a get together with his colleagues.

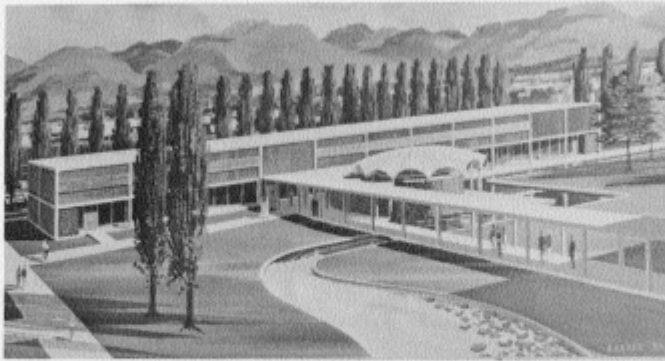

The new men's dormitories, Stephen's Hall and Whitney Hall joined by their lounges, were opened for occupancy in the spring of 1960.

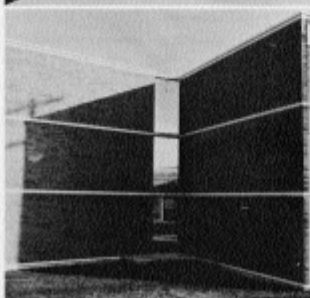

Scenes of new buildings being constructed and sounds of hammers pounding are evidences of our growing campus. In the past two years, we have seen a new gymnasium, men's dormitories, married students' apartments, and an education-psychology building added to Central's campus. A new library is under construction, and the College Union Building is being enlarged and remodeled. Plans are also underway for additional living quarters and another dining hall.

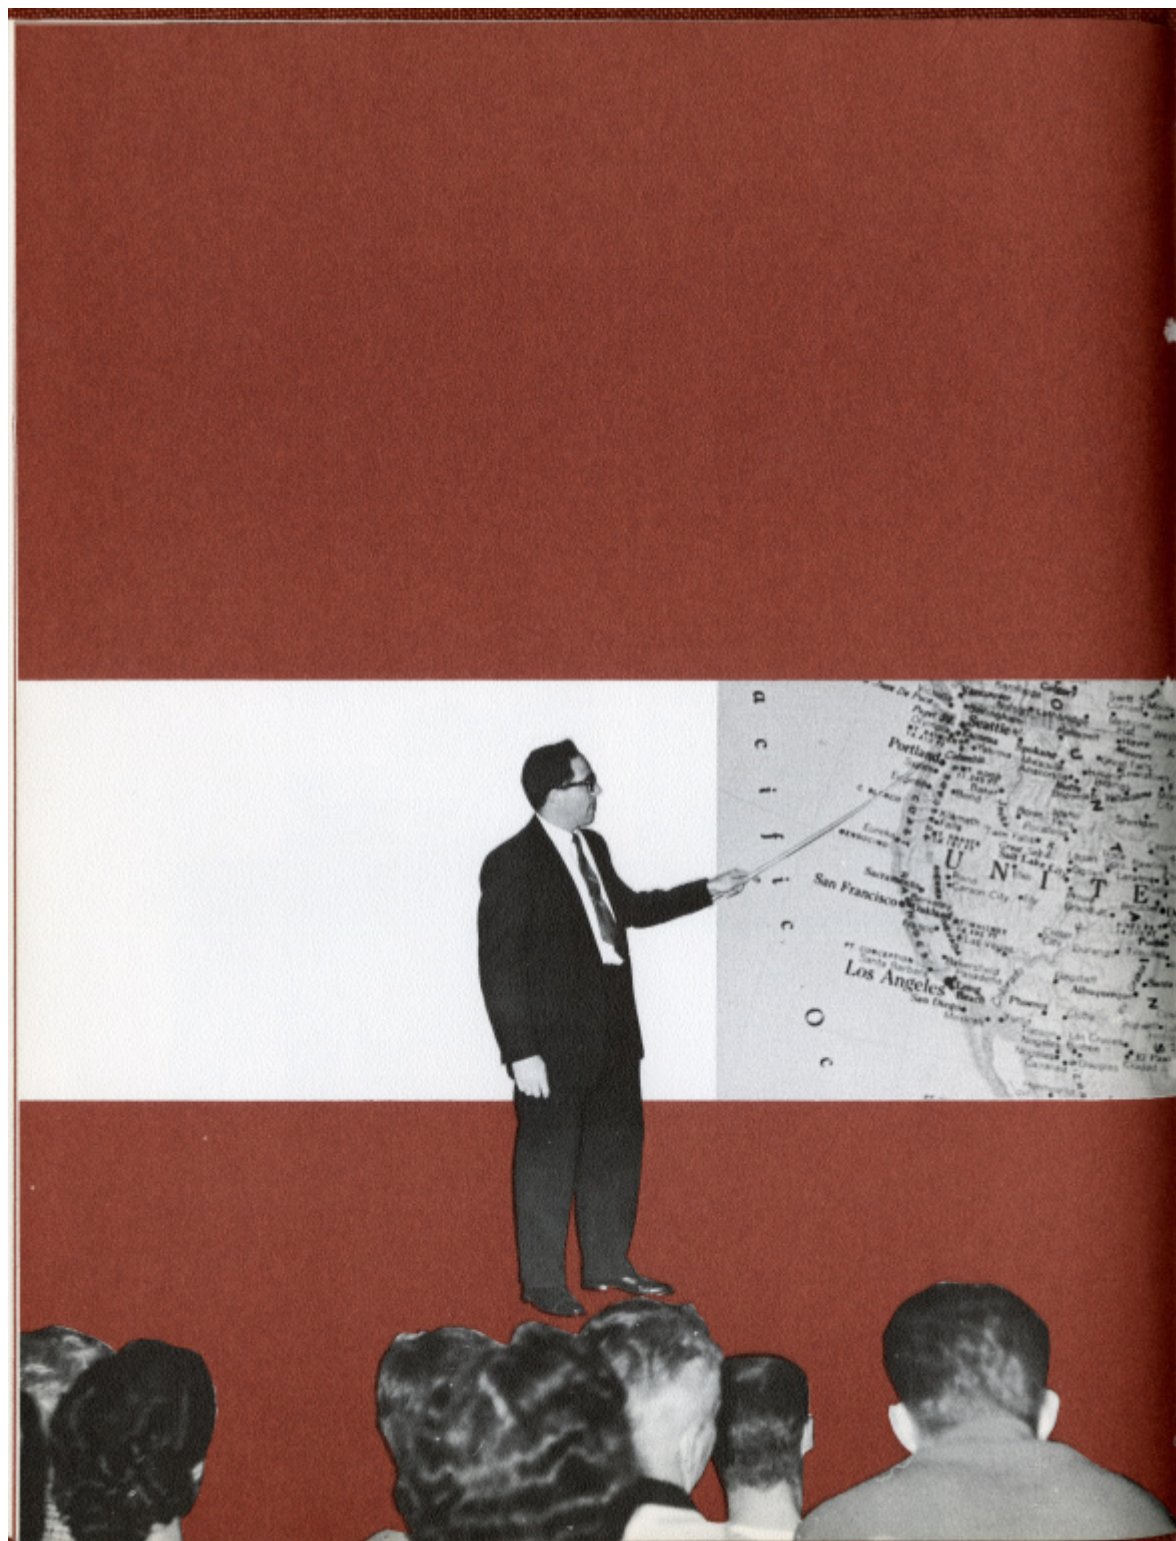

The College Married Students' Apartments on Eighth Avenue, which house 42 married couples, were also completed last year.

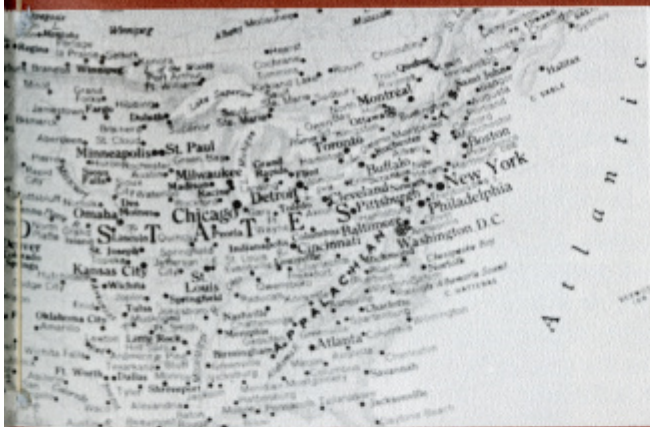

The new education-psychology building, which features a circular conference center in front, was opened fall quarter.

ADMINISTRATION

It is a pleasure to greet the students of Central Washington College of Education.

Growth has been the outstanding goal and achievement of Central Washington College of Education for the past year. The administration is proud of the progress that has been made and is looking forward to greater progress in the year to come, both in the academic area and in the provision of facilities for students in instruction and in living quarters. Current planning is realistic and sensitive to these needs.

The college administration will continue to be alert to the expanding needs and potential of Central Washington College of Education, devoting its time and energies toward building an institution which will lead in the field of higher learning, for its students, its alumni and the community in which it is located.

The Hyakem ably illustrates the activities and growth which we have experienced at Central Washington College.

SUE LOMBARD HALL

The theme "Sue Spirits" was cleverly carried out throughout the entire initiation activities by the co-eds of Sue Lombard. The girl's project was the cleaning of the dorm.

"Dennis the Menace" was the comic strip character portrayed in Sue's sign for the Homecoming competition. Their candidate for Homecoming Royalty was Glenda Ueoka.

Arriving with the cold weather was the spirit of Christmas in Sue Lombard Hall. The girls busily began decoration of their dorm for the competition and practicing their chosen carols for the All-Campus Choral Competition.

During Winter quarter the Sue girls sponsored the Watch Night dance which provided an enjoyable evening for those who attended.

Several firesides, exchanges, serenades, and privates rounded out a very complete year of successful activities for the co-eds. The climax of the years events was the dorm party honoring the graduation seniors.

An annual initiation constructive project, making doll clothes for the Cascade School for retarded children, won the Munson co-eds third place in the events of initiation week. The highlight of the activity was the presenting of the clothes to the School. The lighter side of the activities was the portrayal of little Ford cars by Munson freshmen.

The Homecoming Noise Rally led to the winning of the Spirit Jug by the girls of Munson. Their sign "Pogo" was an eye catcher in the all-campus sign competition.

Munson's annual Sadie Hawkins Tolo drew every kind of unusual and clever costume imaginable. The evening provided hilarious entertainment for the group participating.

Decorating for dorm competition and practicing carols kept the co-eds of Munson busy during the Yuletide season. A sparkling climax of the Fall quarter for the girls of Munson was the annual dorm Christmas party.

A very eventful year was brought to a close with the yearly dorm banquet.

Officers guiding this successful year were: President, Melinda Harmon; Vice President, Betty Jasper; Secretary, Betty Larson; Treasurer, Sandy Fleisher; Historian, Sachie Tanioka; Social Commissioners, Sandy Davis and Roberta Cameron.

HIGGINS HALL

To cope with the growing enrollment this fall, Central established several temporary dormitories in local motels. Higgins Hall occupies the Eighth Avenue Motel.

President Rosemary Lemmon led the girls in a variety of activities during the year. An active initiation introduced the girls to a busy, fun-filled year.

Huckleberry Hound was the comic strip character the girls cleverly portrayed in the Homecoming sign competition. A skit, a take off on "Gunsmoke," added much humor to the talent show.

Numerous exchanges provided many delightful evenings for the girls during the year.

Officers assisting Miss Lemmon were: Mickey Otto, Vice President; Alice Schumate, Secretary-Treasurer; Karen Marsh and Alleen Gideon, Co-Social Chairmen; S.G.A. Representative, Sharon Conklin; Mary Farley, Cafeteria Representative.

Under the leadership of the president, Kay Johnston, the Kennedy Co-eds plunged into a year of activity with their initiation activities. The girls sponsored two firesides Fall quarter for the pre-fabs and Wilson Hall respectively.

The Christmas season found the girls busily decorating their doors and lounge with the theme "Christmas Away From Home." The girls competed in the decoration competition, went caroling, had Pixie week, and prepared a food basket.

An all-school Bestnik dance was presented Winter quarter. The dance was a big success on campus.

The co-eds were also active in the Women's Recreation Association, participating with volleyball, basketball, and softball teams.

Firesides for North, Stephens, and West Halls were also included in the year's agenda.

A spring picnic and year-end banquet concluded the activities for Kennedy.

Other officers assisting Kay during the year were: Vice President, Jeannie Cooper; Secretary, JoAnn Terrizzi; Treasurer, Wilma Skyles; S.G.A. Representative, Linda Schulz; Social Commissioner, Joan Weitzel; Courtesy Chairman, Dolores Grajeda; Historian, Shirley Zier; Food Representative, Diane Peterson.

Glyndaue was the name chosen for the first girls' co-operative living group on Central's Campus. Linda Smith, president of the group, got the co-op off to a great start.

To carry out the Homecoming theme, the girls chose "Peanuts" as the comic strip character for their float.

With the advent of the Christmas season the co-eds got into the swing of things with the preparation for the choral competition.

Winter quarter found Glyndaue undertaking a hayride, skating party, beatnik fireside, and an all-college dance.

An outdoor barbecue, a private, and an outdoor tea for the faculty in the spring rounded out a very successful social calendar.

Officers for the year were: Linda Smith, President; Diane Thacker, Vice President; Carolyn Perkins, Secretary; Kay Harper, Business Manager; Judy Gleason and Sally Farmer, Co-Social Chairmen; Joan Baker, S.G.A. Representative; Jan Bailey, Counselor.

FRONT ROW: JUDY GLEASON, Co-Social Commissioner; JOAN BAKER, S.G.A. Representative; SALLY FARMER, Co-Social Commissioner; LINDA SMITH, President.

SECOND ROW: JAN BAILEY, Counselor; DIANE THACKER, Vice President; CAROLYN PERKINS, Secretary; KAY HARPER, Business Manager.

"Krazy Dazys" flocked the campus during the initiation activities sponsored by Kamola Hall. The Kamola freshmen co-eds were dressed as Daisies, making the initiation very colorful. The exciting initiation was climaxed with a formal initiation of big and little sisters.

The Kamola Co-eds displayed an excess of planning and work on their Homecoming sign entry, "Popeye Sails Over Pacific." Their idea and ingenuity showed its merit by winning first place honors in the sign competition.

A chicken feed exchange with Stephens Hall and the Pre-fabs, at the Posse House, was received with much enthusiasm by the living groups.

The Yuletide season was celebrated with a Christmas party. Their long, hard practicing for the Christmas Choral Competition proved to be very gratifying to those who had put in so much time, for they won the competition for the second year in a row.

With a private and several firesides the social life for the Kamola co-eds was kept at a very high peak.

Climaxing a most successful and busy year the girls of Kamola presented their annual "Farewell" party.

Officers serving for the year were: President, Joan Redmond; Vice President, June Shirozu; Secretary, Jane Wintermute; Treasurer, Vicki Turner; Scribe, Judy Jump; Social Commissioners, Kay Quall and Shirley Baker.

DIXON MANOR

The lack of dormitory space on-campus resulted in the Hickey Apartments being set up as Dixon Hall to house some of Central's co-eds.

With the aid of some of the men's dorms the Dixon girls gave their new home a face lifting inside and out.

During the Yultide season the co-eds of Dixon entered the Christmas Choral Competition, and their dorm decorations won the co-eds third place. To finish the Fall quarter the girls went caroling.

Dixon was the scene of many a successful dorm exchange throughout the year.

Spring quarter, a lawn dance was the activity chosen to finish the year's activities.

Officers for the year were: President, Euveda Carnahan; Vice President, Ann Eliason; Secretary-Treasurer, Barbara Horton; Social Commissioners, Frankie Richmond and Nancy Piccoli; Advisor, Dianne Willey.

SECOND ROW: CHARLES BUCHER, S.G.A. Representative; MICHAEL KANSKI, Vice President and Social Chairman; BARRY BROXSON, President; DAVE WANAMAKER, Secretary.

An active initiation started off the year with a burst of enthusiasm at Carmody.

An exchange with Dixon Hall followed and was returned by the girls assistance on Carmody's float "The Vikings" for the Homecoming Parade.

The Posse House was the scene of a dance co-sponsored by the men of Carmody. An exchange with Higgins Hall finished the fall activities.

The Fourth-Reich movement was started during Winter. Carmody also sponsored an all-college dance which provided an entertaining evening for many couples.

Many parties, dances, and swimming exchanges marked the end of a very active year for the men of Alford.

Officers for the year were: President, Barry Broxson; Vice President, Michael Kanski; Secretary, David Wanmaker; Treasurer, James Anderson; S.G.A. Representative, Charles Bucher; Social Commissioner, Michael Kanski.

MONTGOMERY HALL

Montgomery Hall, with Larry Doerflinger as presiding officer, found itself in the midst of many Fall activities. An exchange dance with Kennedy, a pajama dance with Kamola, a private with Dixon, assisting in the clean-up project at the girls co-op, Glyndauer, a scavenger hunt, and the traditional "Ganges" dunking, highlighted the initiation activities.

The "Montgomery Five," participating in the Freshman Talent show, gave a rendition on "The Kingston Trio."

Homecoming brought new vigor to the men of Montgomery. Their entry in the parade "Scamp" was an eye catcher. Homecoming princess, Joan Pratt, was co-sponsored by the group.

"Christmas Time in Disney Land" was the effective theme chosen by Montgomery. With much hard practice the men of Montgomery won the Christmas Choral Competition with "The 12 Days of Christmas" and "A Christmas Song."

Intramurals, and exchanges kept the men busy for the rest of the year.

A banquet at the Antlers Hotel climaxed a busy, long to be remembered year.

Assisting President Doerflinger were: Vice President and S.G.A. Representative, Gene Fairchild; Secretary-Treasurer, Mike Gama; Social Chairman, Larry Doerflinger; Dining Hall Representative, Don Doerflinger; MIA Representative, Pat McCullough; House Counselor, Bob McCleary.

Participation in the tug-of-war got the freshmen of Munro Hall into the college spirit.

Homecoming week found the men preparing a sign "The Road Runner" for the competition. Princess Joan Pratt was also co-sponsored by the men of Munro.

Winter quarter the men of Munro were active participants in the annual college blood drive.

Through the combined efforts of Munro and the other pre-fabs another "Cupids Informal Tolo" was presented for the campus.

Two annual events, the Munro Roundup and the dorm picnic, were held in the Spring.

Active participation in the various intramural sports kept the men of Munro busy all year.

Rankin Kaut, as presiding officer of the newly opened Stephens Hall, lead his men in a year of active participation in campus activities. First on the agenda for the year was the traditional freshman initiation during which the men constructed a bridge across the "Ganges" between Stephens and Kennedy Halls. Among other rather frantic activities was a dance at 6 A.M.

Homecoming found the men of Stephens engaged in all the events of the week. They chose Sir Lancelot as their theme for sign and float. Their efforts were not in vain for they carried off second place honors in the sign competition.

Together with the pre-fabs and Kamola, Stephens co-sponsored a chicken feed and dance at the Posse House.

Activities keeping the Stephens men on their toes were the several privates, an all campus dance, "The Mad Hatters Ball," a spring Luau, and a very successful crab feed with Munson Hall.

Intramural sports provided the much needed break in the daily routine and were very well attended by Stephens men.

Stephens being the newest dorm on campus started a new tradition, that of having all members wear official dorm pins.

Other officers helping Mr. Kaut in their first year were: Vice President, Van Lehman; Secretary, William Uemura; Treasurer, Dave Ford; Co-Social Chairmen, Bob Darrigan and Dave Laughlin; Chaplain, Jim Mattis; S.G.A. Representative, Darrell Peoples; Intramural Director, Rankin Kaut.

Participation in the freshmen initiation activities created an enthusiastic spirit which was displayed throughout the year by the men of West Hall.

The recently popular character "Ally Oop" was portrayed on the Homecoming float built by the group. The men of West co-sponsored one of the candidates, Sylvia Drake, for the Homecoming Royalty.

A semi-formal dinner-dance, the effort involved in winning the annual cross country turkey trot, and several firesides kept the men busy the remainder of Fall quarter.

The highlights of Winter quarter were a semi-formal dance, an all-college dance, which were enjoyed by all.

Officers were: Bill Lemke, Sam Meyer, Frosty Bennett, Jim Williams, Merle Hufford, Del Hudson, Steve Baker, Jim Willis.

An active initiation started off the year with enthusiasm and excitement for the newly formed Whitney Hall.

A campus improvement project high-lighted the initiation activities and won them first place.

"Snuffy Smithe" was the Whitney theme for Homecoming. The theme was used very effectively in both a sign and float.

The functional and organization processes involved in the formation of a new living group kept the Whitney men busy between activities.

Christmas found the men of Whitney decorating their lounge for the Christmas party.

Several dances were sponsored by the group during the year. A very unusual but entertaining dance to the theme "The Untouchables" was received with much enthusiasm.

Whitney's men set up a new and perhaps someday an annual event, the Stephens-Whitney challenge football game. The much treasured trophy for the winner . . . a little brown jug!

ELWOOD MANOR

Mick Barrus led the men of Elwood Manor into a busy year of Activities.

During Homecoming the men of Elwood entered the noise rally and also made a float "Prince Valiant." Both entries won Elwood second place honors.

Elwood was the scene of a reception held for the Brother's Four after their concert here on campus.

The Christmas season found the fellows busily decorating the Manor and practicing songs for the choral competition. The Elwood men annually decorate the Bernath Nursing Home, and cut trees for those patients desiring them.

Two faculty receptions helped round out the events of Elwood Manor during the year.

Twice each quarter a faculty member was invited to the Manor for dinner, after which he presented a talk for the group.

Firesides and Sunday evening get acquainted parties were the finishing touches to a perfect year for Elwood.

Officers were: Mick Barrus, John Glazier, Rick Fortner, Milton Jones, Lynn Rayburn, Glen Hansen, Jerry Anderson, Doug Robbins, Lee Glenn, John Glazier, Gerry Aust, Counselor Jack Sherry.

President Paul Sargent led the men of North in an active initiation program.

Comic strip character "Beetle Bailey" was chosen as the theme for their Homecoming sign and float. The men of North displayed their school spirit during Homecoming and were presented with the traditional Spirit Jug for their successful efforts.

During the Christmas season North presented their annual semi-formal dance, Winter Wonderland, at the Vista House.

Participation in intramural football, basketball, baseball, and bowling kept the men busy throughout the year. The climax of the year came with the Spring Bar-B-Q.

Under the leadership of president Roy Wooster, the men of Wilson Hall found themselves busily participating in numerous activities during the year.

Wilson captured their first trophy of the year by pulling together to win the Freshmen tug-of-war.

After a year's absence, Wilson again sponsored the all college Pajama Dance. Drawing many an unusual pair of Pajamas, it was a hilarious evening for all attending.

The Homecoming theme of comic strip characters was cleverly portrayed by Wilson in using Al Capp's "Little Abner." The float won the dorm third place, and the sign won them seventh place in the sign competition.

A rousing Christmas spirit was again presented in Wilson Hall as the dorm prepared for the choral competition and dorm decoration competition. Their efforts were not in vain for with the theme "Christmas Greetings from Wilson Hall" they captured second place. Wilson ended the Christmas season with a dorm party.

Many firesides and privates were given, finishing a very active year.

The climax to the year's activities was the dorm party held in the Spring.

OFF CAMPUS

Approximately half of the students attending Central live off campus. A number of these make their permanent homes in Ellensburg. Some live in apartments and rooming houses, and others commute daily from their homes in Yakima, Cle Elum, Thorp, Kittitas, and surrounding areas.

Single college students are not permitted to live off campus until their junior year, unless they live with relatives. The off campus living quarters must be okayed by the Deans of Men and Women, and off campus students must follow certain rules just as those students living in the dormitories must do.

This year the Off Campus Organization was disbanded. Recently, however, the Off Campus Women have reorganized, following the motto, "Don't let O.C. mean 'Out of Contact'".

A game of pinochle provides a break in studying for these boys.

ORGANIZATIONS

GEORGE SELIG, President

There are many things which a person remembers about college, but to me the most outstanding will be my year as an officer in the Student Government Association. I would like to thank all those people who have helped to make this an outstanding year, and especially my council who, although they encountered many difficulties, managed to give this year a large measure of success.

HONOR COUNCIL

Honor Council, which is composed of six elected student members, is the student judiciary board at Central. It handles such problems as drinking and student conduct on campus. Honor Council hears such cases and makes recommendations. These recommendations may be appealed to the Student-Faculty Judiciary Board. Dale Stager has served as this year's chairman, and Concie Dallman as secretary.

HYAKEM STAFF

BRENDA and GRACE WILSON, Photographers

Taking pictures, writing copy, pasting pictures, and proofreading have kept the members of the Hyakem Staff busy since the first day of school. Several students have given up their free afternoons and weekends to help meet the frequent deadlines.

During winter quarter an unexpected crisis occurred. The fire in the Cub left a layer of smoky soot over the entire Hyakem Office making it necessary for the staff to set up a temporary office in the music building until the Cub was reopened.

Joan Marble served as this year's Hyakem Editor, with Richard Davis as her assistant. James Lindquist, as copy editor, coordinated the copy submitted by the division editors, Jerry Hendrickson, Greg Hudson, Pat Hanlon, Ruby Shoemaker, and Roger Wilson. The art work and layouts for this year's book were done by Don Coppock. Student photographers included Brenda and Grace Wilson and Lynn Leaverton. Everett Fenton, as Business Manager, and Dixie Squires, as Ad Manager, served both the Hyakem and Crier Staffs.

CAMPUS CRIER STAFF

The Campus Crier, under the leadership of Gaye McEachern, Editor, has had a busy year keeping the students of Central informed of the news and happenings of the campus.

Meetings were held every Wednesday evening to make assignments for the coming week's paper. The editors, reporters, and photographers would then work diligently to complete their assignments by the following Tuesday evening. The paper came out on Friday mornings.

Winter quarter the Crier Staff set up temporary headquarters in the Music Building as a result of the fire in the CUB.

The Crier and Hyakem Staffs together sponsored a Journalism Banquet in the Spring, to climax the year's activities. Jeanie Smith served as chairman of the banquet.

CONCERT BAND

The 65 piece Central Washington Concert Band, under the direction of A. Bert Christianson and Waldie Anderson, is very active on Central's campus. They perform several formal concerts during spring quarter. The marching band performs for all home football games and the Homecoming parade. A specially picked pep band of 28 members can be heard at all of the home basketball games. The highlight of the band's activities is the annual state-wide tour. This year they toured Central and Southeastern Washington presenting afternoon and evening concerts in 15 schools.

Band officers for the year were: Norman Crouter, President; Ray Johnson, Vice President; Marsh Pancheau, Secretary-Treasurer; and Kenneth Aoki, Business Manager.

CENTRAL SINGERS

DR. WAYNE HERTZ, Director

The Central Singers have been a very active group again this year. The Choir, under the direction of Dr. Wayne Hertz, began the year by singing at the dedication of the new gym. At Christmas the choir along with community members and other interested students presented Handel's "Messiah." Winter quarter the Central Singers sang before the State Legislature at a special session for Washington's birthday. They also sang for the Yakima Rotary Club and the Rotary Convention in Ellensburg. Spring quarter the Choir presented a tour of concerts in the eastern part of the state. Their final appearance of the year was at Commencement.

Officers for the year were: Mike Haberman, President; Denny Harvill, Vice President; and Marilyn Palmer, Acting Secretary.

SPURS

Spurs, a national girls service honorary group, is open to Sophomore women chosen by the active Spur group on the basis of faculty recommendations, grade point, personality, and interest and participation in school activities.

The main function of Spurs is to serve their college, their motto being "At Your Service".

New members are chosen each spring quarter. One morning at 5:30, the thirty new members are roused from bed, given Spurs to wear on their shoes, and taken to breakfast to announce their honor.

Spur activities included: working during registration, Homecoming, Dad's Day Weekend, Mother's Day Weekend, student body elections, a booth in the W Club Carnival, Spur jail for W.U.S. Week, ushering at dime movies and variety shows, a coffee hour on Founders Day, Valentine Spur-O-Grams, and eating dinner together on Thursday.

Officers for the year were: Jean Barrick, President; Cathy Speichinger, Vice President; Judy Harmon, Secretary; Betty Greenwood, Treasurer; Bunny Cahill, Editor; Wanda Brophy, Historian; Mary Beth Peters, Jr. Advisor.

Central Washington Spurs served as hostesses when Ted Kennedy, brother of Jack Kennedy, visited the campus.

KAPPA PI

Bill Borsma puts the finishing touches on a project for the Kappa Pi Art Bazaar.

Kappa Pi, the national art honorary, is organized to promote art interests among college students, bring the art departments of various schools closer together, know the work of other students through exhibits and the national magazine "Sketchbook," stimulate higher scholarship, and recognize potential and professional ability.

Membership requirements are: interest and participation in art functions and activities in school and community, and a 3.00 average in art subjects.

This year meetings were seminar in type. After a speaker, film, or slides, the group would discuss or perhaps actually try out the ideas suggested. Some of the programs presented were: Mr. Bach showing films on sculpture, Mr. Randall showing films of Europe, and Mr. Fassbinder's demonstration of making pottery.

Kappa Pi sponsored a fall and spring art bazaar, art exhibits, and Beaux-Arts Ball. Kappa Pi's float "Pogo" won first place in the Homecoming parade.

Officers were: Don Coppock, President; Ken Hotsko, Vice President; Arlene Cameron, Secretary; Kathy Arnoldt, Treasurer.

FRONT ROW: RICHARD DIETSCH, Social Commissioner; KEN HOTSKO, Vice President; DON COPPOCK, President; ARLENE CAMERON, Secretary; KATHY ARNOLDT, Treasurer. SIGMA MU EPSILON

Sigma Mu Epsilon is an honorary organization for music students. To become a member, a student must have a high grade point average in music subjects and must be chosen by a majority vote of Sigma Mu members.

The purpose of Sigma Mu Epsilon is to provide a permanent organization which promotes cooperative effort and forwards all business and activities that may contribute to music.

Meeting programs are designed to increase the members' knowledge of music and include talks on various musical topics.

Activities of Sigma Mu included sponsoring dormitory choral competition at Christmas, selling pop and candy at basketball games, ushering at musical events such as student recitals, community concerts, and receptions, and forming several chamber music groups.

Officers for the year were: Glen Hansen, President; Marshall Pancheau, Vice President; Larry Hamrell, Secretary; Norman Crouter, Treasurer.

M. E. N. C.

The aims of Music Educators National Conference are to promote fellowship among musicians, to broaden member's outlook in the field of music activity, to increase interest and knowledge in music education, to aid in preparing professional musicians, to make professional opportunities available to music students, to assist in music projects, and to provide contact with M.E.N.C. students of other schools.

Central's M.E.N.C. has the largest membership in the State and second largest in the Northwest.

Programs this year included talks given by: Mrs. Whitner on Stravinsky, Mr. Anderson on Interlocken Music summer camp in Michigan, and Mr. Oakland on job opportunities.

M.E.N.C. activities included a division meeting in Spokane, and panel discussions.

Officers were: Mike Haberman, President; Mike West, Vice President; Marilyn Palmer, Secretary-Treasurer; Carmen Carmichael, Corresponding Secretary.

Members of Delta Omicron, Central's chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, the national education honorary, had "Conformity in Education" as their annual theme. The monthly meetings, in the form of discussion coffee talks, included many local and campus speakers. They talked on such topics as "How Much Does Teaching Influence Our Personal Lives," and "Teaching Machines."

Fulfilling the goal for further and better education, Kappa Delta Pi members took part in the W.U.S. Week Club day selling baked goods for foreign education.

Other Kappa Delta Pi activities this year included the Northwest Regional Convention held at Central and initiation of new members from the education field each quarter.

The annual Kappa Delta Pi banquet honored the old officers and was the scene for the installation of the new officers.

Officers for the year were: Joyce Morrison, President; Glenn Hansen, Vice President; Virginia Uusitalo, Secretary; Mickey Hamlin, Treasurer; Vera Dudley, Historian.

Frosh from North Hall work on one of the many constructive activities, which were a part of this year's initiation, painting the bleachers at the Rodeo grounds.

FRESHMAN ORIENTATION

SGA President, George Selig, gets fitted with a Frosh beanie.

Dinner time is practical joke time during initiation.

The community of Ellensburg welcomed the college students with a breakfast and a treasure hunt in the local stores.

Freshman initiation at Central this year not only featured the usual initiation antics, but included constructive activities as well. Awards were given for the best constructive initiation projects. Whitney Hall won the first place award by cleaning the college picnic area and building fire pits there, cleaning the parking lot between Wilson and Stephens-Whitney, painting and mopping at Dixon Manor, and working on the grounds at Glyndauer. North Hall freshmen painted the bleachers at the rodeo grounds, Munson girls made doll clothes for the retarded children at the Cascade School, and Stevens freshmen constructed a bridge between Stephens-Whitney and the Kennedy Hall parking lot.

The community of Ellensburg welcomed the new students with a street breakfast of hotcakes and sausages on Saturday morning of Frosh Week. Following the breakfast, the students visited the shops of Ellensburg getting acquainted with the merchants and merchandise and looking for prizes that were being given away. One lucky student won a $50 wristwatch.

Do you think he'll hit the target?

During Frosh Week, the men of Stephens built a footbridge between their dorm and the Kennedy Hall parking lot.

These boys clean out the fireplace in their dorm as part of their Frosh Week project.

Ferry Mitchell, acting-president of Central, crowns Ann Cusato 1946 Homecoming Queen.

Jack Smith and Eleanor Hungate took first place honors at the Homecoming Talent Show with their skit, "Balet Del Comiques."

The one damper on the Homecoming activities was the loss of the Saturday afternoon football game to PLU.

Football Halftime activities featured a welcoming of alumni by Queen Ann, introduction of the 1935 and 1950 CWC graduates, a band display by Central's band, and parachute jumps by Pat Brady and Bill Moody.

Munson Hall and North Hall were awarded "Spirit Jugs" for their efforts in producing the most noise and spirit at the three noise rallies.

The climax of a busy, fun-filled weekend was the Queen's Dance Saturday evening. Music for the evening was provided by Jackie Souders' Band of Seattle.

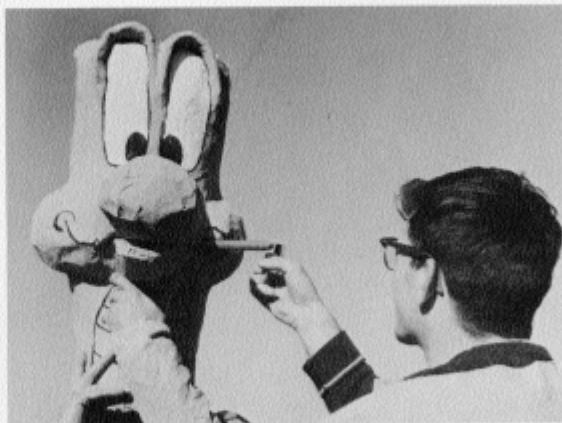

Kappa Pi, art honorary, placed first in the Homecoming Parade with their float, "Pogo."

The viking ship of Prince Vallant, constructed by Elwood Manor, took second place in the parade.

Alpha Psi Omega's Uncle Remus tells us that, "He who fights with Cats gets scratched."

"Want a light, Pogo?"

Members of the cast apply the finishing touches before curtain time.

A ROAD TO FOLLOW

The Fall play brought to campus a World Premiere. The play, "A Road To Follow," was written by Alfred Simon, Professor of History and English at Grays Harbor Jr. College, Aberdeen, Washington.

The time is Civil War, with draft riots the central theme. With sons going off to war, getting killed and wounded, and an alcoholic daughter marrying out of her faith, and a son leading the draft riots, the play lacks nothing in action and emotion.

The cast, under the direction of Milo L. Smith, was:

|-------------------|-------------------|
| Teresa Donegan | Carol Parkhiser |
| Joseph Donegan | Earl "Dee" Torrey |
| Patrick Donegan | Richard A. Davis |
| Aaron Rosenthal | Mike Hanford |
| Margaret Donegan | Gloria Notman |
| Moria Donegan | Tarry Clifton |
| Timothy Donegan | Ted Wing |
| Colonel Keegan | Larry Doerflinger |
| Jimmy Noonan | Rich Woods |
| Sargeant Thompson | Merle Gebers |

The cast relaxes back-stage as Mr. Smith gives a few last minute pointers before the performance.

Patrick and his sister discuss Morias marriage to Aaron Rosenthal.

Mr. Smith helps Jimmy Noonan with his makeup.

THE PIRATE SHIP

With the Christening of the "Pirate Ship" P.S. Salma, the Alpha Psi Omega children's play got under way.

Abigail and Priscilla get left aboard the "Pirate Ship" by their nurse. Priscilla does not recognize the danger until Jonathan explains the situation. Cooky joins with them to capture the pirates. Captain and Mrs. Skull and Dagger Dave end up in prison after a play full of much plank walking and treasure burying.

The cast, all from the drama honorary Alpha Psi Omega, was:

FINIAN'S RAINBOW

Finian (Larry Doerflinger) meets Og (Jack Smith), the leprechaun.

Finian and Sharon watch from the tree as Buzz (Warren Dayton) and Woody (Jerry Semrau) argue.

Eleanor Hungate, as Susan, tells the sharecroppers in dance that "Woody's Comin'".

Og cheers up Senator Rawkins who has been changed to a Negro.

"Finian's Rainbow", spring quarter production of the College Theatre, was the joint effort of three departments — Milo Smith, drama and production director, worked with Dr. Wayne Hertz, musical director, and Miss Elizabeth Jones, dance director and choreographer.

Approximately 100 students were in the production which played four nights with the leads double cast.

Finian's Rainbow tells the story of Finian McLonergan who steals a crock of gold from the Glocca Morra Leprechauns and comes to America with his daughter Sharon. He plans to bury the crock in Rainbow Valley, Missitucky, near Fort Knox, in hopes that the gold will multiply. Sharon soon falls in love with Woody Mahoney, the local hero. Og, a leprechaun, follows Finian to recover the crock of gold; but with the magical powers of the gold gone, Og turns "mortal-ish" and falls in love with Woody's sister Susan, a deaf-mute who dances her "conversations". Senator Billboard Rawkins tries to buy up the valley when it becomes prosperous, but his attempts are thwarted by Finian, Woody and the sharecroppers.

WUS WEEK

One week each winter quarter is set aside for raising money for World University Service. The money from WUS goes toward the purchase of books and educational materials for needy students. Part of the money is put in a scholarship fund to aid students who otherwise would be unable to obtain a college education.

This year's theme for WUS Week at Central was "Help Students Help Themselves"; and Katherine Pedersen served as general chairman of the week's activities, which included a talent show, club day with different booths set up in the I.A. building, and a Professor Snarf contest. The Herodoteans Book Sale on club day took top honors for bringing in the most money. Dr. Howard was elected Professor Snarf on faculty day by penny votes of the students.

DAD'S WEEKEND

Approximately 300 fathers attended "Century 21" at Central Washington College. General Chairmen of the weekend were Sherry McDonald and Sharon Haralson.

Friday nights activities for the visiting fathers included two basketball games, the MIA Championship game and a game between the SGA officers and the faculty. Alpha Phi Omega sponsored a dance following the games. Saturday morning a Coffee Hour was held in the new Conference Center. An afternoon assembly featured Leslie Parr, a representative of Century 21, discussing the coming World's Fair. Many dads also took part in Co-Rec and Open House in the afternoon. The Dads were honored at a special dinner Saturday night. The finale of the weekend was a variety show, "The World of Entertainment."

Open House was held Saturday afternoon in the gymnasium, the new education-psychology building, the science building, and the dormitories.

Two hundred and thirty-five fathers signed the register for Dad's Weekend.

FAMILIAR SCENES

At ten minutes to the hour, throngs of students can be seen pouring out of the classroom buildings around the campus.

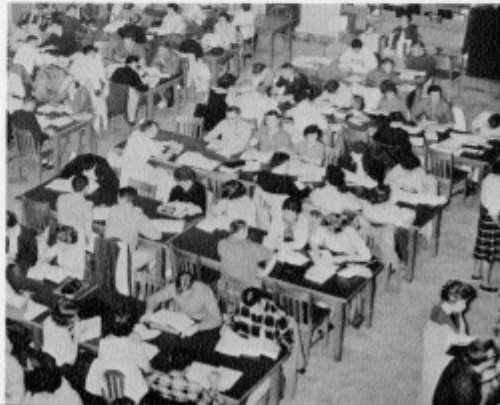

With the growing enrollment at Central, a new dinner line was added this year.

The registrar's office provides help and information for the students at CWC.

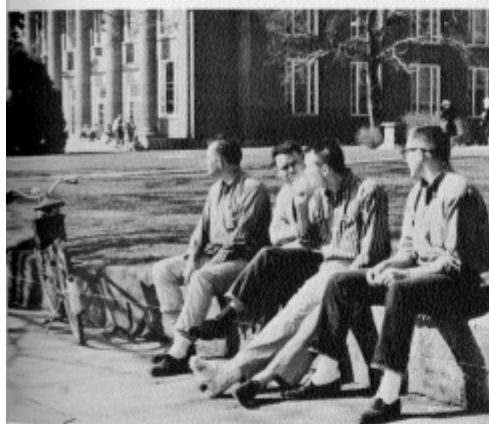

Every evening the campus library is filled with students studying.

AT CENTRAL

Many students spend their free time in a refreshing game of tennis.

Between classes students can be seen relaxing and chatting with each other along Eighth Avenue.

Serenading is a popular activity of the living groups at Central.

The College Bookstore is open daily for students to purchase books, supplies, cards, magazines, and other such items.

While the CUB is being remodeled, the snack bar has been moved to the Munson Hall Dining Room.

The best generation invades Central's campus at the Kennedy Hall sponsored Espresso Tolo.

ACTIVITIES

Although the road to victory had a few detours, this year's Wildcat squad proved their growl on four occasions but were lowered to a purr four other times. This 4-4 record is by no means a good yardstick with which to measure our team's depth and ability. The team was well coached and conditioned and seemed to improve with each game.

Abe Poffenroth's squad was endowed with several outstanding backfield men. Leading them was Central's elusive little All-American candidate Harvey Rath. He was backed by Ron Redden, a sophomore with explosive speed and power. At fullback they had Kay Lybbert, who ran best when the going was tough. The quarterback spot was loaded; Jim Black, a veteran of three seasons, was ably supported by Craig Heimbigner and Phil Fitterer.

A powerful forward wall was lead by All-Conference guard Rubin Rawley. Bill Betcher ably held down the center spot. Other strong offensive line men were: John Webley, Gordon Townsend, Arnie Tyler, Duane Gregory, Jerry Lowe, Art Ellsi, Art Pigg, and Ray Amstead.

The outstanding defensive line men were: Mike Finnigan, Bill Nakashima, Mal Lindquist, Ray Menzia, and John Grove.

Individual team honor awards were given to Rubin Rawley, Inspirational Player and Honorary Team Captain. Jerry Lowe was elected Outstanding Freshman, and Bill Betcher received the Blocking Award.

CENTRAL 0 WHITMAN 14

This was the opening game and Central was off and running. Although the Wildcats lost on the scoreboard, they won in every other respect. Harvey Rath started the season by rolling up 149 yards rushing, while Kay Lybbert returned a kick-off 70 yards to the Whitman three yard line.

CENTRAL 19 WESTERN 14

Western scored first on a field goal late in the first half. The third period found Central's Harvey Rath and Ron Redden on the move. Scoring included touchdowns by Rath, Jim Black, and Ray Amstead, who also converted a point after touchdown.

FRONT ROW: Pete Erickson, Phil Smith, Vernal Chandler, John Webley, Jack Curtright, Jerry Anderson, Arthur Pigg, Ron Redden, Frank Shoemaker, Bob Shelton, Arnie Tyler. MIDDLE ROW: Jim Nylander, Gordon Townsend, Harvey Rath, Bill Betcher, Jim Black, Rubin Rawley, Ray Menzia, Bill Nakashima, Malcolm Lindquist, Art Ellis, Jack Kapp, Jay

CENTRAL 13 UPS 6

Before a capacity crowd at their first home game of the season, the Cats did it again. The uphill pull found Dick Howe scoring on a 65 yard pass play from Jim Black, Ray Amstedt converting for the point, and Ron Redden reeling off 76 yards for the second and deciding TD.

CENTRAL 0 WHITWORTH 10

It took a team rated fifth in the nation of small colleges to stop Central's drive to a championship. Whitworth halted Central's powerful ground attack by holding them to a mere 24 yards gained. Craig Heimbigner kicking two punts over 50 yards helped keep the Whitworth team at bay.

CENTRAL 41 EASTERN 6

The passing of Craig Heimbigner and the receiving of Tom Wallenborn proved too much for the Savages of Eastern. Wallenborn received touchdown passes of 58 and 79 yards. Heimbigner faked a punt and ran 41 yards for a TD. Jim Black scored on a quarterback dive, Harvey Rath on a pass, and Jack Curtright on a one yard line charge.

CENTRAL 8 PLU 14

In the first half Central was unable to move against a fired up PLU team, while their opponents moved for a pair of TD's. Central's first score came on a safety, when Phil Smith tackled PLU's McClary in the end zone. PLU held Central on the five yard line, when Central recovered a fumble and scored their only touchdown on the next play.

CENTRAL 33 WESTERN 0

After a disappointing Homecoming game, the Cats from Central unloaded a five touchdown barrage on the hapless Western team. The team rolled up 225 yards rushing and 102 yards passing for a total of 327 yards and 33 points.

CENTRAL 7 UPS 19

Central wound up the season by suffering a loss at the hands of UPS. A UPS fumble on its own 14 yard line set up Central's only touchdown. The victory for UPS tied the two teams for second place in the Evergreen Conference.

BASKETBALL

The Central Washington Wildcats coached by Leo Nicholson finished last in the Evergreen Conference with a 3-11 record. Although the Wildcats led their opponents in rebounds and scored only seven fewer total points, their opponents hit a better percentage both from the field and from the free throw line and had fewer fouls.

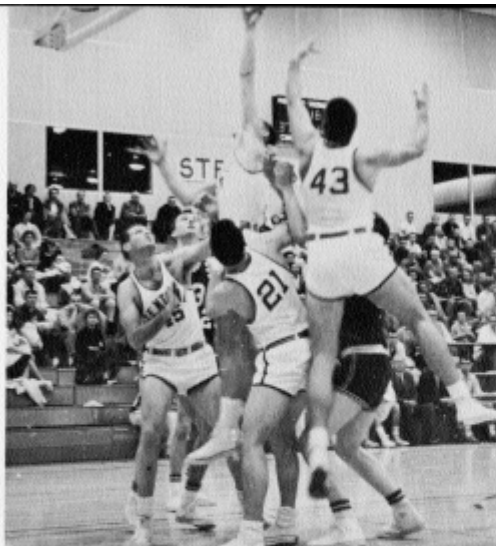

Tom Wallenborn was high scorer for the Wildcats with a 12.8 average. Norm Erken, third ranking Central scorer, proved to be the most accurate shooter with a 43.5 percentage.

| CENTRAL | 70, 54 |
| SEATTLE PACIFIC | 82, 73 |

The Central Wildcats got off to a ragged start in the 1960-1961 basketball season with a 82-70 loss to SPC. Bob Rochelle of SPC led all scorers with 26 points. Phil Fitterer was high for Central with 15. The Falcons took advantage of Central's 33 fouls to win the contest.

The Wildcats suffered their second loss of the season again at the hands of SPC. The Falcons led by Jim Douglas out rebounded Central 53-43. Norm Erken with 16 points was high scorer for the Cats.

|----------------|--------|
| CENTRAL | 42, 68 |
| PORTLAND STATE | 47, 48 |

Central's Wildcats dropped a 47-42 decision to Portland State as the Vikings gave the visitors a lesson in ball control. Tom Wallenborn took game honors with 22 points in this slow, methodical contest.

Central reversed an earlier loss to Portland State with a 68-48 victory. The Wildcats sputtered to a 32-16 lead in the first half and had little trouble thereafter. Eleven Central men were in the scoring bracket, led by Craig Heimbigner with 12.

|--------------------|----|
| CENTRAL | 54 |
| PACIFIC UNIVERSITY | 53 |

Forward Leon Sigler netted two free throws in the closing minutes of play to give the Wildcats their first victory of the season, beating Pacific University 54-53. Phil Fitterer led the Wildcat attack with 15 points.

|---------|----|
| WHITMAN | 58 |

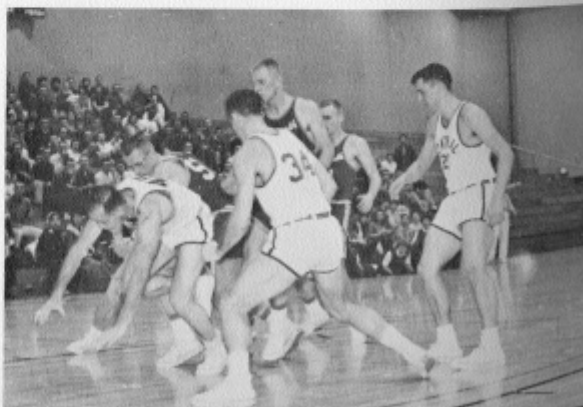

The Central Wildcats got hot in the second half to whip Whitman College 80-58. The first half was an even battle with Central leading at the half 29-26. Norm Erken led in scoring and rebounding with 19 points and 13 rebounds.

|-------------|------------|
| CENTRAL | 74, 83, 67 |
| ST. MARTINS | 65, 52, 60 |

Central led all the way against St. Martins to win 74-65. Forward Tom Wallenborn scored 20 points to lead the Cats. St. Martin's Jim Snyder also hit 20 points. Coach Leo Nicholson used 14 players with 13 of them scoring.

Central tallied 53 points in the second half to again beat St. Martins 74-65. Craig Heimbigner hit 7 of 11 shots in the second half and finished the game with 16 points, one less than teammate Norm Erken.

Central built up a 34-25 first half lead and then hung onto it in the second half to mark a clean sweep of the three game series with St. Martins. The victory broke a five game losing streak for the Cats.

|------------------|--------|
| PACIFIC LUTHERAN | 67, 78 |

The CWC basketball team opened its 1961 Evergreen Conference season with a 75-67 victory over PLU. Central led 37-33 at the half and moved out to a 44-36 lead in the second period, while the Lutes remained scoreless for seven minutes. After that Central was never seriously threatened.

Central, hitting a cold 29 percent, bowed to PLU 78-66. The Lutes, led by Nelson and Alexander, hit 48 percent. Tom Wallenborn was high scorer for the Cats with 18.

|---------|--------|
| CENTRAL | 64, 69 |
| WESTERN | 67, 95 |

A cold Wildcat team dropped a 67-64 tilt to WWC. Western led most of the way, but had to break away from a 64-64 tie with three minutes left to play to snare the victory. Jim Adams took game honors with 19. Central's Tom Wallenborn scored 17.

Western picked up 39 points on free throws to whip the Wildcats 95-68. Herm Washington paced the winners with 25 points. High for Central was Wallenborn with 19.

|-------------|--------|
| CENTRAL | 75, 71 |
| PUGET SOUND | 68, 80 |

Tom Wallenborn and Norm Erken led Central to a 75-68 win over UPS. Both scored 16 points. The Cats shot 41 per cent from the field to lead at halftime 48-35. In the second half the Loggers narrowed the lead to 65-64, but Central overcame the Loggers press to come out victorious.

The UPS Loggers collected 30 points from the foul line to whip Central 80-71. The Cats outscored UPS from the field and out rebounded them but were only able to hit nine of 24 free throws. Bob Johnson led the winners with 22 points while Jeff Kellman tallied 20 for Central.

|---------|----------------|
| CENTRAL | 63, 59, 65, 62 |
| EASTERN | 69, 67, 66, 63 |

A last minute effort on the part of the Central Wildcats fell short as Eastern came out victorious, 63-60. Down 38-26 at the half, Central came back and closed the gap several times in the second half but was unable to take the lead.

Central dropped a second game to Eastern 67-59. Neither team was too hot, with Eastern hitting 34 percent and Central 29 percent. Norm Erken tallied 14 to lead the Wildcat scorers.

EWC edged Central 66-65 in a conference thriller.

In their fourth meeting of the season, Eastern again nipped Central by one point, 63-62. The Cats led 51-36, at the half, but EWC tied it up five minutes later, 51-51. From then on it was a tight contest with Eastern coming out on top.

|-----------|----------------|
| CENTRAL | 55, 56, 67, 72 |
| WHITWORTH | 66, 53, 77, 83 |

A rash of late game fouls cost CWC its chance for victory as Whitworth won 66-55. The two teams battled on near-even terms throughout the first half and most of the second, but Whitworth cashed in on free throws to cinch the win. Wallenborn led scorers with 26.

Central held onto a slim three-point lead to dump the league-leading Pirates 56-53. With two minutes to play, the Cats put on a rugged stall to hand Whitworth its first Conference loss. Wallenborn was again high for Central with 18.

Whitworth defeated Central 77-67 to take the lead in the Evergreen Conference. Central led most of the way, but the Pirates came through in the second half to cap the victory. High scorer for the game was Whitworth's Ed Hagen with 21. Erken scored 13 for Central's top honors.

Whitworth broke from a 33-33 halftime tie to an 83-72 victory over CWC. Jack Jackson led the Pirate attack with 25 points, and Tom Wallenborn paced the Cats with 24.

BASEBALL

BASEBALL

Improved pitching, a solid outfield, and a questionable infield make up the 1961 Central Washington College baseball team. Twelve returning lettermen and several freshmen and transfer players offer hopes of an improved squad over last season.

Lettermen Gar Winder and Ken Anderson form the backbone of the pitching staff. Dick Seraile, another letterman, will be detained with an arm injury. Backing up Winder and Anderson will be transfer Lee Arnold and Chuck Hiber, who has returned to Central after a five year's absence.

Lettermen Bill Arney will handle most of the action behind the plate. Art Ellis, freshman, will help out in this position.

In the outfield Coach Jim Nylander has four lettermen, Sid Pederson, Phil Fitterer, Willie Minor, and Eddie Jordan.

Neil Cummings and transfer Ken Jacobs will fight it out for the first base position, and Craig Heim-bigner and Elroy Jacobs will battle for short stop. Bill Seraile and Jack Krieg should see action at third, and Mike Johnsrud and Jim Baker at second. Johnsrud, veteran all-Conference performer, may be out part of the season due to a bad back. Coach Nylander says that the team has a "good attitude" and should do quite well this season.

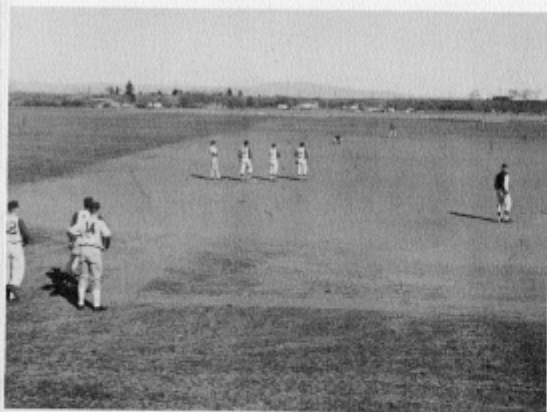

Coach Jim Nylander

Jim Baker. ROW THREE: Lee Arnold, Bill Arney, Dick Seraile, Dale Lambert, Jim Willis, Don Pitts, Larry Foster, Chuck Hiber, Gary Larson, Myron Cramer, Roger Stanford.

The infielders warm up before the game.

Put it right over the plate!

And a fast peg to home plate.

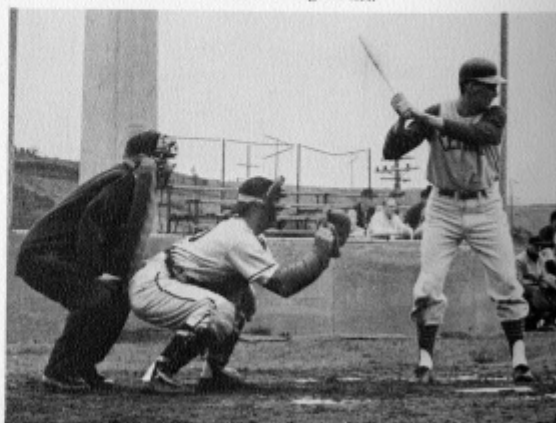

Central's man heads for home.

Another run across the plate.

All set for a good hit.

TRACK

Coach Adrian Beamer

TRACK

The 1961 Central Washington College track team, although quite youthful, appears to be strong in most field events, but weak in hurdles. The squad's overall strength was hurt considerably with the loss of three strong point winners from last year.

Dick Knight, junior conference champion, is back in the high jump and broad jump. He will be teamed with sophomore Dave Olson.

Kay Lybbert, backed by Bill Morrisson and Lew Christiansen, should lead the way in the shot-put circles. Pole vaulters include Jack Curtright, freshman, Larry Anderson, and Pat Katzer.

Throwing the javelin will be John Karas, Butch Burlingame, and Dirk Peterson.

Ron Redden will lead the way in the sprints, followed closely by John Doncaster and Mel Terrana. Top prospect in the half mile is Roy Bollinger. Rob Siel, Mike Veak, Gordon Tubesing, and Frank Deeter, all freshmen, are all possibilities for the mile and two mile. Possibilities for the 440 yard dash will be Tony Clark, Roger Jones, and Mike Porter.

ROW ONE: Gordon Tubesing, Harold Jackson, Bob McDonald, Mel Terrana, Gene Luft, Fred Bockwith, Mike Veak, Jack Curtright, Larry Anderson. ROW TWO: Pat Katzer, Ron Redden, Tony Clark, Paul Layton, Bill Prater, Frank Deeter, Dick Knight, Dennis Hamling, manager.

ROW THREE: Dean Ingram, manager, Dave Olsen, Jerry Lowe, Ray Kinnaman, Bill Morrisson, Roy Bollinger, John Doncaster, John Anderson, Ed Bergeson.

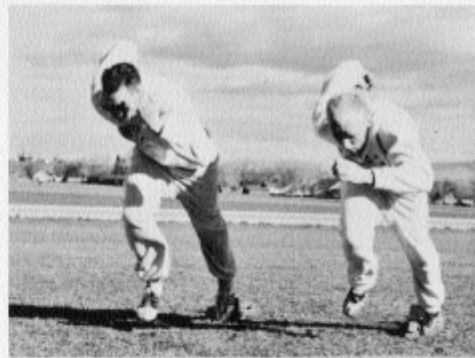

Lew Christiansen puts the shot for Central.

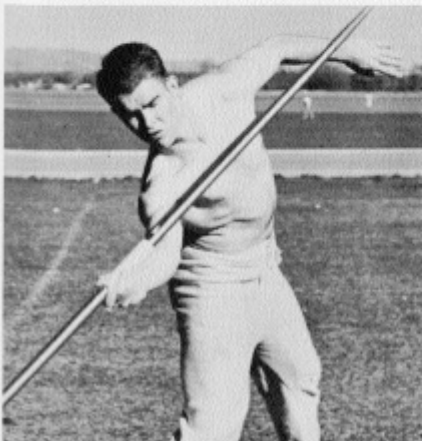

Jack Curtright clears the bar in the pole vault event.

Paul Layton executes a roll over the bar in the high jump.

At the sound of the gun, the sprinters are off.

Bill Prater prepares to throw the javelin.

John Anderson, who was out last season with a pulled muscle, appears to be the best prospect for the hurdles.

Coach Everett Irish

TENNIS

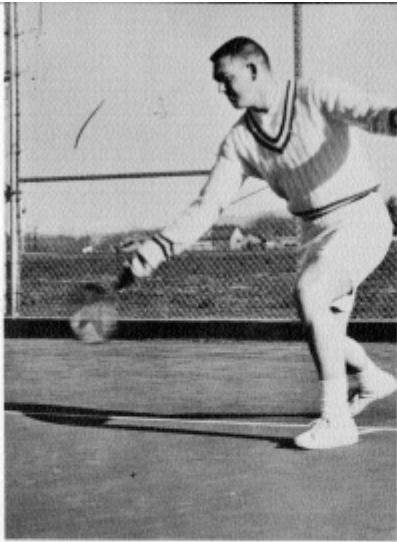

Four lettermen and several strong freshmen and transfers have given coach Everett Irish the most material to choose from in several years for the 1961 Central Washington tennis squad. Irish indicated he has more depth on the squad than ever before.

Vying for the number one position are letterman Dave McElroy and freshman Russ Glover. Other strong possibilities are Dick Marshall, letterman, and Scott McCabe, Ellensburg frosh. Jeff Mills, Gene Marble, Roger Plockleman, Frank Appel and Floyd Mortensen round out the squad.

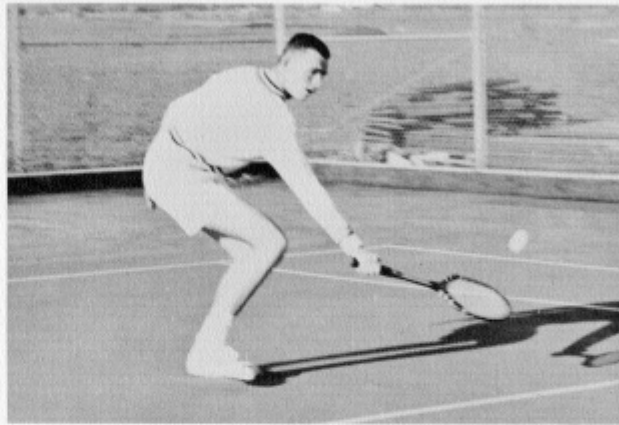

This year's team is initiating the new tennis courts located east of the pavilion. Central will host the NAIA district meet on their new courts.

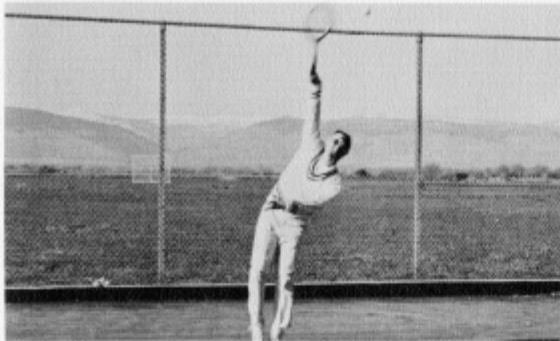

ROW ONE: Frank Appel, Dave McElroy, Scott McCabe. ROW TWO: Jeff Mills, Dick Marshall, Roger Plockleman, Russ Glover, Gene Marble.

Russ Glover sweeps low to return his opponent's serve.

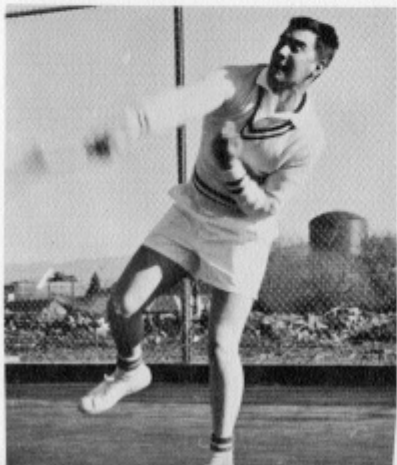

Jeff Mills returns the ball with a low backhand shot.

Glover readies to smash his serve to his opponent.

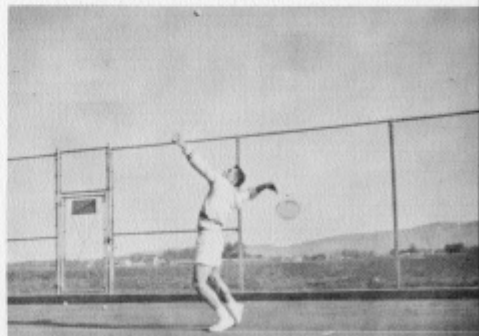

Dave McElroy has to travel to return this shot.

Gene Marble forehands a shot back across the net.

"Service!" calls Dick Marshall as the match begins.

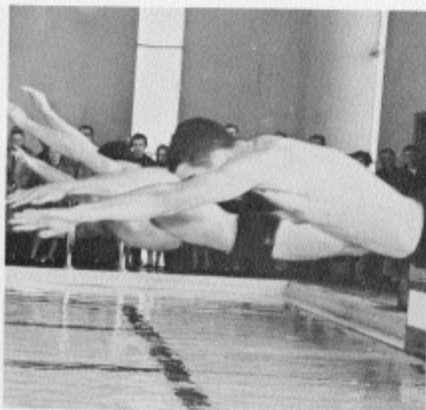

Coach Harold Fieldman

SWIMMING

The Central Washington swimming team, coached by Harold Fieldman, ends this, their second season in third place in the Evergreen Conference. The team only had a 1-5 season record, but came through with a third place finish in the conference swim meet which closed the season. Bill Ishida took the conference diving title, and Roger Hertrich captured a first in the 100 yard breaststroke.

Bill Ishida was voted Honorary Captain of the swim team, and Duane Bangs received the Inspirational award.

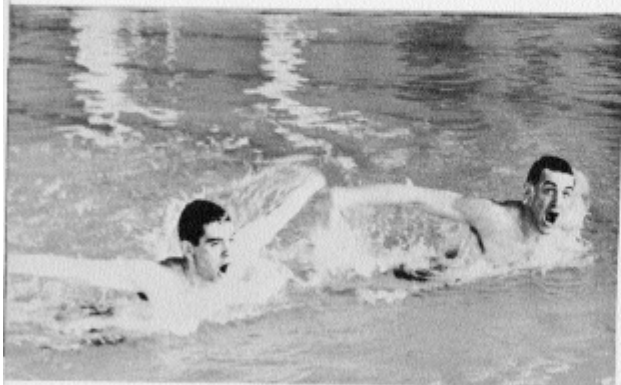

Swimmers from Central Washington and Eastern stretch their arms out as they prepare to hit the water at the start of a race.

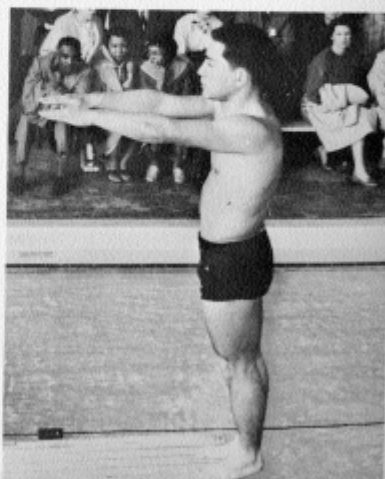

FRONT ROW: Gary Wilson, Bob Darrigan, John Ogden, Bill Ishida, John Couch, Dave Wenger. BACK ROW: Roger Hertrich, Marvin Wood, Roger Anderson, Tony Adsley, Jeff Kellman, Jim Sparks, Coach Fieldman.

Bill Ishida won the Evergreen Conference Diving Title.

164 Roger Hertrich has a slight lead in the breaststroke.

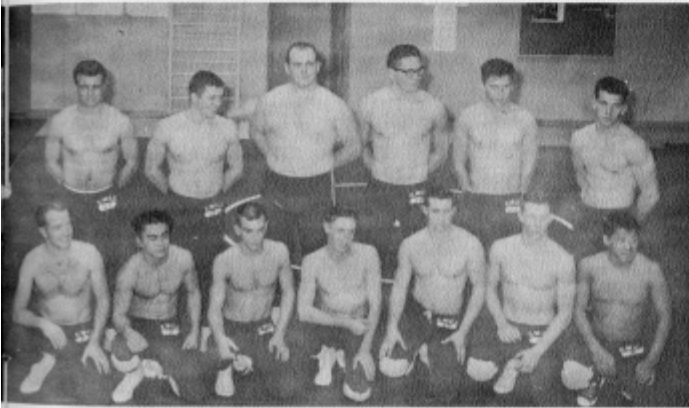

WRESTLING

The Central Washington wrestling team posted an even 5-5 record of wins and losses for their first full season of activity. Eric Beardsley serves as coach of the Wildcat wrestlers.

Bill Burvee, 177 pound wrestler for Central, took top team honors for the season with a record of eight wins, four losses, and one draw.

Yamamoto's opponent holds him with a neck hold.

The Central wrestlers perform a warm-up exercise.

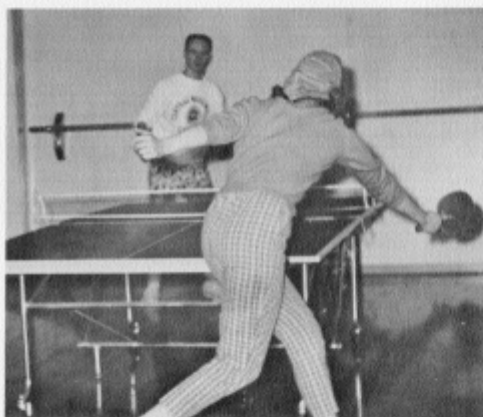

Over the net goes the ball in this student volleyball game at Co-Rec.

CO-REC

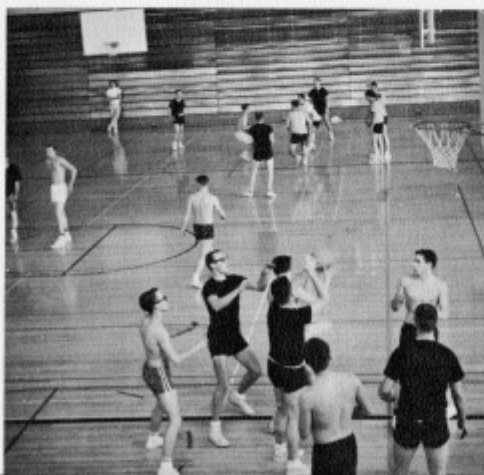

The trampoline is one of the most popular features of Co-Rec.

Swing—and the ball is returned to her opponent.

Co-Rec, under the direction of Helen McCabe, faculty adviser, and Henry Turik, student chairman, is held every Saturday afternoon at the Nicholson Pavilion. The program is planned to fill the recreational needs of students not participating in varsity athletics. Student leaders, identified by their red and black arm bands, help organize games and issue equipment.

Volleyball, badminton, ping pong, and trampoline activities are held in the upstairs gym. Softball, croquet, horseshoes, and miniature golf are scheduled in the field house, and the swimming pool is open for free swimming.

Basketball is a popular winter activity at Co-Rec. Four games can be played at once in the Varsity gym.

Softball is the newest addition to the list of activities offered at Co-Rec.

EDITOR'S THANK YOU

The past year has been a very busy, but also very memorable one for me. Now that the deadlines have been met I have time to relax and think over the events of the year. At this time I would like to express my deepest thanks to the many people who made this 1961 Hyakem possible. My warmest appreciation goes to our adviser, Miss Bonnie Wiley, who was always ready to help when difficulties arose. Special thanks go to all of my staff members who spent long hours working to meet deadlines . . . to Rich Davis, who as Associate Editor, kept busy mounting pictures, working on the index, and being of general assistance . . . to Jim Lindquist, Copy Editor, who typed and corrected all of the copy . . . to Art Editor Don Coppock who gave up much of his free time to draw the layouts for the book and design the cover and division pages . . . to Roger Wilson, Sports Editor, who so aptly covered the sports events of the year . . . to the section editors, Jerry Hendrickson, Greg Hudson, Pat Hanlon, and Ruby Shoemaker, who gathered and wrote the copy for the book . . . to the several student photographers whose pictures appear throughout the book . . . to staff members, Annette Winsor, Gene Marble, Sandy Davis, Kathy Doane, and Sharon Engstrom, who performed the necessary miscellaneous tasks required to meet the deadlines . . . and to Everett Fenton, Business Manager, and Dixie Squires, Advertising Manager, for handling the financial end of the Hyakem. I would also like to thank Hal Scofield and Dwaine Mason, commercial photographers, for their excellent cooperation, and Howard Vierling of Craftsman Press for his assistance and patience. Without these people and many more cooperating in working together, this 1961 Hyakem would not have been possible.
